SENATOR DeCAMP: It's a technical thing. I don't know what Senator Cavanaugh has really got in mind here, or what his big problem is on it. Cases before July, Senator Cavanaugh, were assessed at two points. Is that correct or not? No, forget it. Cases before July were assessed at two points. Then the Supreme Court instructed us to start assessing a higher number of points, six points. Correct. So what happens to a case that finally now reaches the Supreme Court that was assessed at two points? You're retroactively saying it goes up to six.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: No, it is six now. That's the law.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Well I guess I'm not getting through to you.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: That's what the case was about, Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I haven't read the case, Senator Cavanaugh. I move the adoption of the amendment. Senator Kremer, do you oppose the amendment? I just want to know whether you oppose the amendment or not. If you oppose it I'll withdraw it. Do you oppose it?

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ... nothing to do with the issue under discussion, but if the bill is returned what is the chance of its going back to Final Reading and being passed?

PRESIDENT: Of what, Senator? Of what?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If the bill is returned what would its chances of being processed, in the time we have left, be?

PRESIDENT: Maybe the Clerk could tell us.

CLERK: We simply would have to stay in session tonight long enough for it to come up correctly engrossed.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Then I'll withdraw the amendment.

PRESIDENT: Thank you Senator. Very nice of you. Is there an objection? Seeing none Senator DeCamp's amendment is withdrawn. What's next Mr. Clerk? Alright. Mr. Speaker. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and Speaker Burbach. Can you give me a moment to discuss this issue with Mr. Dineen's appointment to explain why I have a motion?

CLERK: Mr. President, there is pending a motion by Senator Chambers to reject the appointment of Mr. Dineen as Fire Marshal.

PRESIDENT: But the Chairman of the Board ... Chairman of the Committee on Committees has advised me that he has withdrawn his nomination, Mr. Dineen has.
